This month's quotes are all about "Courage". I hope you will find them inspirational and helpful!

"He who is not courageous enough to take risks will accomplish nothing in life."

—Muhammad Ali

"Courage is looking fear right in the eye and saying, "Get the hell out of my way, I've got things to do."

—Unknown

"Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength, while loving someone deeply gives you courage."

—Lao Tzu

"Whatever you do, you need courage. Whatever course you decide upon, there is always someone to tell you that you are wrong. There are always difficulties arising that tempt you to believe your critics are right. To map out a course of action and follow it to an end requires some of the same courage that a soldier needs. Peace has its victories, but it takes brave men and women to win them."

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts."

—Winston Churchill

"Men make history and not the other way around. In periods where there is no leadership, society stands still. Progress occurs when courageous, skillful leaders seize the opportunity to change things for the better.”

—Harry S. Truman

“Work hard. And have patience. Because no matter who you are, you’re going to get hurt in your career and you have to be patient to get through the injuries.”

—Randy Johnson

“Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts.”

—Winston Churchill

“It takes courage to grow up and become who you really are.”

—E.E. Cummings

“Have courage for the great sorrows of life and patience for the small ones; and when you have laboriously accomplished your daily task, go to sleep in peace. God is awake.”

—Victor Hugo

“Courage is what it takes to stand up and speak; courage is also what it takes to sit down and listen.”

—Winston Churchill

“Courage doesn’t always roar. Sometimes courage is the quiet voice at the end of the day saying, “I will try again tomorrow.”

—Mary Anne Radmacher

“Every man has his own courage, and is betrayed because he seeks in himself the courage of other persons.”

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

“Every time you make the hard, correct decision you become a bit more courageous, and every time you make the easy, wrong decision you become a bit more cowardly. If you are CEO, these choices will lead to a courageous or cowardly company.”

—Ben Horowitz

“Courage is the most important of all the virtues because without courage, you can’t practice any other virtue consistently.”

—Maya Angelou

“In acting, there’s a type of courage you’re recognized for all the time. You lose 100 pounds and play a guy with AIDS, and you get rewarded. But, in life, doing what is courageous is quiet, and no one knows about it. Courage is someone making sacrifices for their family or making selfless decisions for what they hope or feel.”

—Rob Lowe

“I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it. The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear.”

—Nelson Mandela

“Courage isn’t having the strength to go on – it is going on when you don’t have strength.”

—Napoléon Bonaparte
