This month's quotes are all about "CRISIS." I hope you will find them inspirational.

"Our state is in crisis. Our people are hurting. Now is the time when we all must resist the traditional, selfish call to protect your own turf at the cost of our state. It is time to leave the corner, join the sacrifice, come to the center of the room and be part of the solution."

—Chris Christie

"The Chinese use two brush strokes to write the word 'crisis.' One brush stroke stands for danger; the other for opportunity. In a crisis, be aware of the danger—but recognize the opportunity."

—John F. Kennedy

"I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any national crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts."

—Abraham Lincoln

"If crisis was a cake, then our politicians are globally its baker."

—Steve Merrick

"Get acquainted with your shadow, or find yourself surprised when a crisis emerges."

—M.B. Dalocchio

"Some calamities – the 1929 stock market crash, Pearl Harbor, 9/11 – have come like summer lightning, as bolts from the blue. The looming crisis of America's Ponzi entitlement structure is different. Driven by the demographics of an aging population, its causes, timing and scope are known."

—George Will

"Through each crisis in my life, with acceptance and hope, in a single defining moment, I finally gained the courage to do things differently."

—Sharon E. Rainey

“The darkest places in hell are reserved for those who maintain their neutrality in times of moral crisis.”

—Dante Alighieri

When you face a crisis, you know who your true friends are.”

—Magic Johnson

“But there was a special kind of gift that came with embracing the chaos, even if I cursed most of the way. I’m convinced that, when everything is wiped blank, it’s life’s way of forcing you to become acquainted with and aware of who you are now, who you can become. What is the fulfillment of your soul?”

—Jennifer DeLucy

“This world crisis came about without women having anything to do with it. If the women of the world had not been excluded from world affairs, things today might have been different.”

—Alice Paul

“Don’t wait until you’re in a crisis to come up with a crisis plan.”

—Phil McGraw

“You can’t relate to a superhero, to a superman, but you can identify with a real man who in times of crisis draws forth some extraordinary quality from within himself and triumphs but only after a struggle.”

—Timothy Dalton

“I never encountered any crisis in life, because I solved my problems before they turned into crisis.”

—Amit Kalantri
