- This month's quotes are all about "Divorce." I hope you will find them inspirational and helpful!

"My wife Mary and I have been married for forty-seven years and not once have we had an argument serious enough to consider divorce; murder, yes, but divorce, never."

—Jack Benny

"It takes two to destroy a marriage."

—Margaret Trudeau

"I never imagined that divorce would be part of my life history or my family's legacy. When people say that divorce can be more painful than death, I understand why. But like any great trial, God uses everything for good, if we allow Him to heal us."

—Kristin Armstrong

"When mom and dad went to war the only prisoners they took were the children."

—Pat Conroy

"A divorce is like an amputation: you survive it, but there's less of you."

—Margaret Atwood

“I firmly believe in marriage. It’s a real important decision that takes a lot of dedication and time. If you’re thinking of divorce, you shouldn’t get married.”

—Seth Green

“Some people think that it’s holding on that makes one strong; sometimes it’s letting go.”

—Unknown.
