This month's quotes are all about "Giving Back". I hope you will find them inspirational and helpful!

---

"Do you not know that God entrusted you with that money (all above whatever buys necessities for your families) to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to help the stranger, the widow, the fatherless; and indeed, as far as it will go, to relieve the wants of all mankind? How can you, how dare you defraud the Lord, by applying it to any other purpose?"

—John Wesley

"Happiness doesn't result from what we get, but from what we give."

—Ben Carson

"Scientists have discovered that the small, brave act of cooperating with another person, of choosing trust over cynicism, generosity over selfishness, makes the brain light up with quiet joy."

—Natalie Angier

"I wondered why somebody didn't do something. Then I realized, I am somebody."

—Unknown

"I have one life and one chance to make it count for something...My faith demands that I do whatever I can, wherever I am, whenever I can, for as long as I can with whatever I have to try to make a difference."

—Jimmy Carter

"Go the extra mile. It's never crowded."

—Unknown

"What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead."

—Nelson Mandela

““For it is in giving that we receive.”

—Francis of Assisi

“I’ve learned that that you shouldn’t go through life with a catchers mitt on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back.”

—Maya Angelou

“We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.”

—Winston Churchill

“Giving back involves a certain amount of giving up.”

—Colin Powell

“Go the extra mile. It’s never crowded.”

—Unknown

“What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead.”

—Nelson Mandela

“At the end of life we will not be judged by how many diplomas we received, how much money we have made, how many great things we have done. We will be judged by ‘I was hungry and you gave me to eat, I was naked and you clothed me, I was homeless and you took me in.’ Hungry not only for bread—but hungry for love. Naked not only for clothing—but naked for human dignity and respect. Homeless not only for want of a room of bricks—but homeless because of rejection.”

—Mother Teresa

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.”

—Mahatma Gandhi

“Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth.”

—Muhammad Ali

“Never get tired of doing little things for others. Sometimes, those little things occupy the biggest part of their hearts.”

—Unknown

“If you wait until you can do everything for everybody, instead of something for somebody, you’ll end up not doing nothing for anybody.”

—Malcolm Bane

“Even if you’re on the right track, you’ll get run over if you just sit there.”

—Will Rogers

“We can do no great things—only small things with great love.”

—Mother Teresa

“Anyone who thinks that they are too small to make a difference has never tried to fall asleep with a mosquito in the room.”

—Christine Todd Whitman
