This month's quotes are all about "Grandchildren". I hope you will find them inspirational and helpful!

---

"The greatest legacy one can pass on to one's children and grandchildren is not money or other material things accumulated in one's life, but rather a legacy of character and faith."
—Billy Graham

"I have never once regretted missing a business opportunity so that I could be with my children and grandchildren."
—Mitt Romney

"If I had known grandchildren were this much fun I would have had them first."
—Unknown

"My granddaughter came to spend a few weeks with me, and I decided to teach her to sew. After I had gone through a lengthy explanation of how to thread the machine, she stepped back, put her hands on her hips, and said in disbelief, "You mean you can do all that, but you can't play my Game Boy?"
—Author Unknown

"Grandchildren have taught me how important the future is. I try to look through their eyes and envision what's in their imagination. What's the world going to look like when they're my age? That really does take a huge imagination."
—Richard Lugar

"Grandchildren are God's way of compensating us for growing old."
—Mary H. Waldrip

"What a bargain grandchildren are! I give them my loose change, and they give me a million dollars' worth of pleasure."
—Gene Perret

“Our grandchildren accept us for ourselves, without rebuke or effort to change us, as no one in our entire lives has ever done, not our parents, siblings, spouses, friends—and hardly ever our own grown children.”

—Ruth Goode

“Grandchildren give us a second chance to do things better because they bring out the best in us.”

—Unknown

“A mother becomes a true grandmother the day she stops noticing the terrible things her children do because she is so enchanted with the wonderful things her grandchildren do.”

—Lois Wyse

“Your sons weren’t made to like you. That’s what grandchildren are for.”

—Jane Smiley

“Perfect love sometimes does not come until the first grandchild.”

—Welsh Proverb

“A grandchild fills a space in your heart that you never knew was empty.”

—Unknown

“An hour with your grandchildren can make you feel young again. Anything longer than that, and you start to age quickly.”

—Gene Perret
