Start by Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul, and sings the tunes without the words, and never stops at all.

—Emily Dickinson

When the world says, "Give up,"
Hope whispers, "Try it one more time."

—Author Unknown

We should not let our fears hold us back from pursuing our hopes.

—John F. Kennedy

We can have hope even while maintaining a negative—or sometimes simply realistic—attitude. For instance, if you're dying of cancer, you can still hope for pain relief. If you have a difficult-to-treat cancer, you can still hope for new treatments.

—Lori Hope, Help Me Live

Consult not your fears but your hopes and dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you tried and failed in, but with what is still possible for you to do.

—Pope John Paul XXIII

Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow. The important thing is to not stop questioning

—Albert Einstein

In order to discover new lands, one must be willing to lose sight of the shore for a very long time.

—Anonymous

Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. Nothing can be done without hope or confidence.

—Helen Keller

Most of the important things in the world have been accomplished by people who have kept on trying when there seemed to be no hope at all.

—Dale Carnegie

You may be broken in mind and spirit, and life may seem hopeless and unfair. But as long as you have the breath of life within you, there is hope for a better tomorrow. So, look outward; and reach upward to God; and keep praying and smiling.

—Felicitia “Terry” Robinson, Seven Letters to Heaven

Hope is the golden thread that should be woven into every experience of life.

—Unknown Source

I find hope in the darkest of days, and focus in the brightest. I do not judge the universe.

—Dalai Lama

Hold your head high, stick your chest out. You can make it. It gets dark sometimes but morning comes. ... Keep hope alive.

—Jesse Jackson

We must accept finite disappointment, but we must never lose infinite hope.

—Martin Luther King, Jr.

Faith, hope, and charity-if we had more of the first two, we'd need less of the last.

—Anonymous

Hope is the physician of each misery.

—Irish Proverb

When hope is taken away from the people, moral degeneration follows swiftly after.

— Pearl S. Buck

True hope is swift and flies with swallow's wings; Kings it makes Gods, and meaner creatures kings.

—William Shakespeare

We want to create hope for the person ... we must give hope, always hope.

—Mother Teresa

Hope is the anchor of the soul, the stimulus to action, and the incentive to achievement.

—Anonymous

Every area of trouble gives out a ray of hope, and the one unchangeable certainty is that nothing is certain or unchangeable.

—John F. Kennedy

One should ... be able to see things as hopeless and yet be determined to make them otherwise.

—F. Scott Fitzgerald

Hope is putting faith to work when doubting would be easier.

—Anonymous

There is no medicine like hope, no incentive so great, and no tonic so powerful as expectation of something tomorrow.

—Orison Swett Marden

Hope sees the invisible, feels the intangible and achieves the impossible.

—Anonymous

In all things it is better to hope than to despair.

—Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe

He who has health, has hope. And he who has hope, has everything.

—Arabian Proverb

Practice hope. As hopefulness becomes a habit, you can achieve a permanently happy spirit.

—Norman Vincent Peale

To the sick, while there is life there is hope.

—Marcus Tullius Cicero

The beauty of the rainbow after a storm heralds a bright, new beginning filled with hope and promise.

—Felicitia "Terry" Robinson, Seven Letters to Heaven
