“No matter what you’ve done for yourself or for humanity, if you can’t look back on having given love and attention to your own family, what have you really accomplished?”
— Lee Iacocca

“Some days there won’t be a song in your heart. Sing anyway.”
— Emory Austin

“It is not how much you do, but how much love you put in the doing.”
— Mother Teresa

“Physical strength is measured by what we can carry; spiritual by what we can bear.”
—Unknown

“Mountains cannot be surmounted except by winding paths.”
—Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe

Kindness can transfer someone’s dark moment with a blaze of light. You’ll never know how much your caring matters. Make a difference for another today.”
—Amy Leigh Mercree

“There are only four kinds of people in the world.
Those who have been caregivers.
Those who are currently caregivers.
Those who will be caregivers, and those who will need a caregiver.”
— Rosalyn Carter

“Impossible situations can become possible miracles.”
—Robert H. Schuller

“The beginning of anxiety is the end of faith, and the beginning of true faith is the end of anxiety.”

— George E. Mueller

“In life you can never be too kind or too fair; everyone you meet is carrying a heavy load. When you go through your day expressing kindness and courtesy to all you meet, you leave behind a feeling of warmth and good cheer, and you help alleviate the burdens everyone is struggling with.”

—Brian Tracy

“While we have the gift of life, it seems to me the only tragedy is to allow part of us to die— whether it is our spirit, our creativity or our glorious uniqueness.”

— Gilda Radner

“If you have the courage to begin, you have the courage to succeed.”

—David Viscott

“Beginning today, treat everyone you meet as if they were going to be dead by midnight. Extend to them all the care, kindness and understanding you can muster, and do it with no thought of any reward. Your life will never be the same again.”

—Og Mandino

“Too often we underestimate the power of a touch,
a smile,
a kind word,
a listening ear,
an honest compliment,
or the smallest act of caring,
all of which have the potential to turn a life around .”

—Leo Buscaglia

“The simple act of caring is heroic.”

—Edward Albert

“To care for those who once cared for us is one of the highest honors”

—Tia Walker
