DECEMBER

This month's quotes are all about "CONTENTMENT." I hope you will find these quotes inspirational.

"Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don't have you will never, ever have enough."

—Oprah Winfrey

"For after all, the best thing one can do when it is raining is let it rain."

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

"I am content; that is a blessing greater than riches; and he to whom that is given need ask no more."

—Henry Fielding

"We are not rich by what we possess but by what we can do without."

—Immanuel Kant

"Just tell yourself, Duckie, you're real quite lucky."

—Dr. Seuss

"To be content doesn't mean you don't desire more, it means you're thankful for what you have and patient for what's to come."

—Tony Gaskins

"Contentment is an attitude that says, I will be satisfied with what God has given me."

—Anonymous

“To be content doesn’t mean you don’t desire more, it means you’re thankful for what you have and patient for what’s to come.”

—Tony Gaskins

“Contentment is an attitude that says, I will be satisfied with what God has given me.”

—Anonymous

“Life is about balance. Be kind but don’t let people abuse you. Trust but don’t be deceived. Be content but never stop improving yourself.”

—Anonymous

“Contentment always eludes those who don’t count themselves blessed for what they already have.”

—Anonymous

“Contentment does not come from achievement. It comes from a relationship with the Lord.”

—Paul Henderson

“Be content with what you have; rejoice in the way things are. When you realize there is nothing lacking, the whole world belongs to you.”

—Lao Tzu

“Do not spoil what you have by desiring what you have not; remember that what you now have was once among the things you only hoped for.”

—Epicurus

“A divorce is like an amputation: you survive it, but there’s less of you.”

—Margaret Atwood

“My wife Mary and I have been married for forty-seven years and not once have we had an argument serious enough to consider divorce; murder, yes, but divorce, never.”

—Jack Benny

“I firmly believe in marriage. It’s a real important decision that takes a lot of dedication and time. If you’re thinking of divorce, you shouldn’t get married.”

—Seth Green
