This month's quotes are all about "Discouragement." I hope you will find them inspirational and helpful!

"No matter what it is that you are going through at this very moment, I encourage you to choose perseverance over discouragement. If you hang in strong long enough, sooner or later, this experience would become a thing of the past like the obstacles you defeated in the past."
—Edmond Mbiaka

"The Christian life is not a constant high. I have my moments of deep discouragement. I have to go to God in prayer with tears in my eyes, and say, 'O God, forgive me,' or 'Help me.'
—Billy Graham

"I think a big test we all face in life on a regular basis is that discouragement test. Life's not always fair, but I believe if you keep doing the right thing, God will get you to where you are."
—Joel Osteen

"Develop success from failures. Discouragement and failure are two of the surest stepping stones to success."
—Dale Carnegie

"I am not discouraged, because every wrong attempt discarded is another step forward."
—Thomas A. Edison

"You will not be able to envision your future until you block out the words of those who constantly scorch you with discouraging remarks."
—Evy Michaels

"Never let someone who draws a line and say you can't cross it intimidate you. Don't be discouraged when someone says you can't do it. You might have been the only one sent to do it."
—Israelmore Ayivor

“Disappointments will come and go, but discouragement is a choice that you make.”

—Dr. Charles Stanley

“Never, never, never quit!”

—Winston Churchill

“What we do not see, what most of us never suspect of existing, is the silent but irresistible power which comes to the rescue of those who fight on in the face of discouragement.”

—Napoleon Hill

“Do not be discouraged if your plans do not succeed the first time. No one learns to walk by taking only one step.”

—Catherine Pulsifer

“If you’re feeling discouraged and defeated—don’t quit. Play on, hope on, and move forward. The music you play—even in the midst of incredible darkness—can and will turn the tide of your own battles.”

—Seth Adam Smith

“When discouraged some people will give up, give in or give out far too early. They blame their problems on difficult situations, unreasonable people or their own inabilities.

When discouraged other people will push back that first impulse to quit, push down their initial fear, push through feelings of helplessness and push ahead. They’re less likely to find something to blame and more likely to find a way through.”

—Steve Goodier

“When you get wisdom, failure and discouragement will get behind you.”

—Sunday Adelaja

“Don’t ever shelter the feeling of discouragement in your mind, because it only comes to distract one from one’s true abilities in life.”

—Edmond Mbiaka

“Suffering, failure, loneliness, sorrow, discouragement, and death will be part of your journey, but the Kingdom of God will conquer all these horrors. No evil can resist grace forever.”

—Brennan Manning

“Defeat should never be a source of discouragement but rather a fresh stimulus.”

—Robert South

“In spite of discouragement and adversity, those who are happiest seem to have a way of learning from difficult times, becoming stronger, wiser and happier as a result.”

—Joseph B. Wirthlin

“In spite of everything I shall rise again: I will take up my pencil, which I have forsaken in my great discouragement, and I will go on with my drawing.”

—Vincent Van Gogh
