This month's quotes are all about "Family". I hope you will find them inspirational and helpful!

"A house is made of walls and beams;
a home is built with love and dreams."

—Unknown

"None but a mule denies his family."

—Moroccan proverb

"The happiest moments of my life have been the few which I have passed at home in the bosom of my family."

—Thomas Jefferson

"Home is the one place in all this world where hearts are sure of each other. It is the place of confidence. It is the place where we tear off that mask of guarded and suspicious coldness which the world forces us to wear in self-defense, and where we pour out the unreserved communications of full and confiding hearts. It is the spot where expressions of tenderness gush out without any sensation of awkwardness and without any dread of ridicule."

—Frederick W. Robertson (1816-1853), English reformer and minister

"Blessed be childhood, which brings down something of heaven into the midst of our rough earthliness."

—Henri Amiel

"In every conceivable manner, the family is the link to our past, the bridge to our future."

—Alex Haley

"Perfect love sometimes does not come until the first grandchild."

—Welsh proverb

“Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble there's no place like home!”

—John Howard Payne

“The whole world is my family.”

—Pope John XXIII

“In family life, love is the oil that eases friction, the cement that binds closer together, and the music that brings harmony.”

—Eva Burrows

“Out of the dreariness,
Into its cheeriness,
Come we in weariness,
Home.”

—Stephen Chalmers, author

“Smile at each other, smile at your wife, smile at your husband, smile at your children, smile at each other — it doesn't matter who it is and that will help you to grow up in greater love for each other.”

—Mother Teresa

“At the end of your life, the only thing meaningful you will leave behind will be your family - so work the hardest at making it a success.”

—Chris Widener

“What God is to the world, parents are to their children.”

—Philo

“It is my pleasure that my children are free and happy, and unrestrained by parental tyranny. Love is the chain whereby to bind a child to its parents.”

—Abraham Lincoln

“The family with an old person in it possesses a jewel.”

—Chinese saying

“Feelings of worth can flourish only in an atmosphere where individual differences are appreciated, mistakes are tolerated, communication is open, and rules are flexible—the kind of atmosphere that is found in a nurturing family.”

—Virginia Satir

“A man should never neglect his family for business.”

—Walt Disney

“It takes about five years for a walnut tree to produce nuts, but this is not true of a family tree.”

—Anonymous
