This month's quotes are all about "Love." I hope you will find them inspirational.

"What is yours is mine, and all mine is yours."

— Titus Maccius Plautus

"Love begins at home; love lives in the homes, and that is why there is so much suffering and so much unhappiness in the world today...Everybody today seems to be in such a terrible rush, anxious for greater developments and greater riches and so on, so that children have very little time for their parents. Parents have very little time for each other, and in the home begins the disruption of the peace of the world."

—Mother Teresa

"Where there is love there is life."

—Mohandas K. Gandhi

"Where does the family start? It starts with a young man falling in love with a girl. No superior alternative has yet been found. "

—Sir Winston Churchill

"Love doesn't make the world go 'round; love is what makes the ride worthwhile."

— Franklin P. Jones

"Love brings ecstasy and relieves loneliness."

—Bertrand Russell

"Life is the flower for which love is the honey."

—Victor Hugo

"If love is the answer, could you rephrase the question?"

—Lily Tomlin

“Here with a Loaf of Bread beneath the Bough, A Flask of Wine, a Book of Verse—and Thou Beside me singing in the Wilderness— And Wilderness is Paradise enow.”

—Omar Khayyam

“We believe that any transformation of the world begins with the transformation of the self. For eventually it is love, goodwill and cooperation which will overcome the negative forces threatening us and bring about the dawn of a new age. It is really the self to which we should aim to direct our efforts to rebuild. It is in a society that can inspire our efforts and individual drives that humans can prosper.”

—H.R.H. Basma Bint Talal

“Perhaps loving something is the only starting place there is for making your life your own. “

—Alice Koller

“Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength; while loving someone deeply gives you courage. “

— Lao Tzu

“ Watching you walk out of my life does not make me bitter or cynical about love. But rather makes me realize that if I wanted so much to be with the wrong person how beautiful it will be when the right one comes along.”

—Anon

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking. It is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves.”

—1 Corinthians 13:4-7

“The heart that loves is always young.”

— Greek Proverb

“The world is so empty if one thinks only of mountains, rivers and cities; but to know someone who thinks and feels with us, and who, though distant is close to us in spirit, this makes the earth for us an inhabited garden.”

— Goethe

“What greater thing is there for two human souls than to feel that they are joined together to strengthen each other in all labor, to minister to each other in all sorrow, to share with each other in all gladness, to be one with each other in the silent unspoken memories?”

—George Eliot

“Try to find the beauty and the gentleness in love which remains about and around you, and let this help you through your sorrows. And ever has it been that love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation.”

— Kahlil Gibran, The Prophet

“Dear Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God and my Savior. I need your love to cleanse me from my mistakes and wrongdoings. I need your light to drive away all darkness. I need your peace to fill and satisfy my heart. I now open the door of my heart and ask You to please come into my life and give me your gift of eternal life. Amen.”

—Mother Teresa
