The following quotations are on "UNITY." I hope that you will find them inspirational.

“I think family is key, and if you have love for family, then you have love for others—and you have unity as a people.”

—Marlon Wayans

“We’d like to build a highway for healing and unity.”

—Bill McCartney

“My dear, please don’t feel that you need to treat me with kid-gloved hands or in any way different than how you treat my other sisters. The only thing that is different between us is the color of our skin...we are all the same, and should be treated equally and with unity in mind.”

—Felicita “Terry” Robinson

“The men who have guided the destiny of the United States have found the strength for their tasks by going to their knees. This private unity of public men and their God is an enduring source of reassurance for the people of America.”

—Lyndon B. Johnson

“There’s a thing that has happened in the U.S. where the spirit has been beaten so badly and so you feel no unity in the voice of the country.”

—Robbie Robertson

“We are all equal in the fact that we are all different. We are all the same in the fact that we will never be the same. We are united by the reality that all colours and all cultures are distinct & individual. We are harmonious in the reality that we are all held to this earth by the same gravity. We don’t share blood, but we share the air that keeps us alive. I will not blind myself and say that my black brother is not different from me. I will not blind myself and say that my brown sister is not different from me. But my black brother is he as much as I am me. But my brown sister is she as much as I am me.”

—C. JoyBell C.

“It is the State which educates its citizens in civic virtue, gives them a consciousness of their mission and welds them into unity.”

—Benito Mussolini

“Together with international unity and resolve we can meet the challenge of this global scourge and work to bring about an international law of zero tolerance for terrorism.”

—Manmohan Singh

“The miracle of unity is being granted to us as we pray and work for it in the Lord’s way. Our hearts will be knit together in unity. God has promised that blessing to His faithful Saints whatever their differences in background and whatever conflict rages around them.”

—Henry B, Eyring

“Take heed, then, often to come together to give thanks to God, and show forth His praise. For when you assemble frequently in the same place, the powers of Satan are destroyed, and the destruction at which he aims is prevented by the unity of your faith.”

—Ignatius of Antioch

“What I’m not confused about is the world needing much more love, no hate, no prejudice, no bigotry and more unity, peace and understanding. Period.”

—Stevie Wonder

“Unity is strength...when there is teamwork and collaboration, wonderful things can be achieved.”

—Mattie Stepanek

“The point in history at which we stand is full of promise and danger. The world will either move forward toward unity and widely shared prosperity—or it will move apart.”

—Franklin D. Roosevelt

“I have said this in the past and I will continue to repeat it as long as I live: Whoever tries to hurt our national unity is my enemy until the day of judgement.”

—King Hussein I

“The reason why the world lacks unity, and lies broken and in heaps, is, because man is disunited with himself.”

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

“Every government must consider the security of the country. That is just part of the responsibilities of any government. But true security can only come out of unity within a country where there are so many ethnic nationalities.”

—Aung San Suu Kyi

“For too long, we have focused on our differences—in our politics and backgrounds, in our race and beliefs—rather than cherishing the unity and pride that binds us together.”

—Bob Riley
